Gospel: Matt 11:25-30

My dear brothers and my dear sisters, we must begin by thanking God, our ever loving Father, God The Most Holy Trinity of Love, for His infinite Love and Mercy, for the graces poured upon us especially at this time, for His Love for the whole of His creation.

I want to let you know that God knows all your problems. There is nothing that escapes God's notice in the world. There is no single thing that escapes God's notice. God knows everything. He knows all the problems we have, both as individual persons, as family, as community, as Church, as the whole of humanity, the human race and the whole of creation. And God provided the solution for all these problems.

This solution God has given to us to solve all problems in the world. This solution is the person of our Lord Jesus Christ, God Himself, incarnate by the power of the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary. He is the power of God He is the Love of God. In Him is the fullness of God's Love.

He invites us to come to His Heart: "Come to Me all you who labour and are overburdened and I will give you rest." He knows all our labours, all our burdens. He has provided the resting place for us. Where? "Come and learn from Me, from My Heart, for I am gentle and humble of Heart and you find the rest for your souls."

He praised the Father: "I praise You Father," as we heard in the Gospel, "for hiding these things from the clever and the learned and revealing them to mere children." And in this year we are celebrating God's revelation of His Love, His mystery, His solution to mere children, Hundred years of the Fatima apparition, where God sent His greatest emissary, His own Mother Mary, to the little children there at Fatima and God gave them the solution, revealed to them what should be done to avoid crises of war, destruction, godlessness, atheism, communism, at the time: consecration to the Immaculate Heart.

These Two Hearts of Love, Jesus and Mary, the Two Hearts, is God's solution for all the problems in the world, whether they are political, racial, even health, even psychological, even economical problems, financial problems, whatsoever problem we have, God has the solution for all of them. Let us dwell, then, on this solution God has given us and stop crying because of these problems. Look at the solution!

The Jews at the particular problem, as they were leaving Egypt: behind them Pharaoh pursuing them, wanting to capture them and throw them back to the slavery or destroy them. Ok. And in front was the Red sea. They cried, because they saw no solution. Before them the Red sea, behind them the Pharaoh and his army, and these two things were over their human power.

They were slaves in Egypt. In front of them was the sea. They are not fish, they are human beings, they have no ship, no boats. They lost hope. They despaired and even their leader was joining them in crying. And God said to Moses: “Don’t cry to Me, you have a solution.” God knew it will happen, and from the beginning He provided for it. He prepared for it; He provided for all these things. He gave Moses the solution: the staff in his hand.

God knew that our world will come to this stage where evil will be raging. He knew it will happen. He has given us a solution: Two Hearts. Union with these Two Hearts of Love. There is no need for us to beat about the bush, wasting our time. We have received from God the solution. We are not looking for the solution. We have found it. It was given to us.

Our only problem is: Can we listen to God... and do what He tells us?

My dear people of God, brothers and sisters, listen to me. God has chosen you from all the peoples in the world. From the over 7 billion people in the world God has chosen you to be His own special people, at this time, to be the receivers and the bearers of the solution for the whole world.

As Jews of old were chosen by God, Moses told them: “You are a special people chosen by God”, not for yourselves but for God and for the whole world to be the bearers, the receivers, the light, the salt on earth.

The message of Fatima is central to the message of the Two Hearts of Love, from the beginning to the end. God made it very clear what His Will is. He wills the veneration of these Two Hearts of Love as His solution for all the problems in the world, in the church, in the families, in this time. And He has entrusted this solution to us, to me and to you.

It is the solution through prayer; through prayer and sacrifice, through prayer and penance, through living the life of purity, the life of holiness, the life centred around the Holy Eucharist, the Holy Mass and adoration. This solution from God is infallible, it cannot fail. The only failure is not using it, not applying it. Once we apply ourselves to this solution from God, it must succeed. This is also part of the prophecy of our Lady there at Fatima: “At last, my Immaculate Heart must triumph!”

I want to assure you and everybody in the whole world, that God alone, He is God. There is no other. God is fully in charge of His world. It may appear that He has allowed evil to thrive, but make no mistakes: the devil is not in charge of the world. Evil cannot rule the world. God has not and will never abandon His creation, because all He made, He made it out of Love, especially with His Incarnation of His only begotten Son into the world. He can never abandon us with the presence of His Son in many tabernacles in the world. It must be celebrated. God can never abandon the world. The only thing we need to do is to immerse ourselves into this mercy, infinite ocean of Mercy of God, through prayer.

Don’t expect everybody to listen to this and hear it and follow it. That is why God needs some people, who will be the Victim souls. Victim souls, who will give themselves, sacrifice themselves, suffer like Christ to the point of dying to save all. We have the mandate from God to pray, to make sacrifice for the salvation of all souls. I want to assure you and assure everybody that God's Will must be done.

At last God must fulfil what He has planned, to unite all things in Christ, things in heaven and things on earth. He has promised us, He has announced it: "It is possible to save all souls!" But He needs you, He needs me, people who will give themselves to living this life of faith, hope and charity, this life of prayer, penance, by day, by night. What our Lady announced there at Fatima: "Many souls go to hell because they have nobody praying for them!"

Now, if we get enough people saying this prayer of the Hearts of Love, if we get enough people saying this prayer of the Hearts of Love and saying this and living this prayer with their whole heart, their whole mind, their whole soul (these people are the Victims of Love, they are living martyrs of Love), God will use them to save all. This Mercy of God is not new. He has always been so, the God of Mercy and compassion.

Here at the time of Lot and Abraham God was prepared, for the sake of 10 people, to save all in Sodom and Gomorra, but the Lord couldn't find 10 people.

In our own time God is still looking for people who will volunteer themselves as Victim souls and detach themselves from every other nonsense, useless, hopeless things, wastes, distractions, and apply themselves only for the Kingdom of God, by living the life of purity, life of prayer, life of penance, reparation summarized in the Holy Eucharist and this prayer of Adoration.

So I am inviting you, brothers and sisters, for the sake of the Love of God, for the sake of souls, for the sake of humanity, for the sake of the Church, to decide and answer like Mary and offer yourselves like Mary who said: "Behold I am the handmaid of the Lord, be it done to me according to Your word!"

If today you listen to the voice of God calling you, harden not your hearts. Look at what it will mean if you say YES to this call by God, calling you this night – if you can hear His voice and say: "Here I am, Lord, I have heard you calling in the night. I will go, Lord. I will sacrifice myself."

You can do nothing better with your life here on earth. There is no profession, there is no occupation you can give yourself to in this world that is higher than the vocation of a Victim soul. There is nothing you can do here on earth that is higher than saving souls. There is nothing you can do, there is no work that is higher than salvation of souls. And this is God's own solution: Union with the Two Hearts of Love. And God will use you and use me and use those who are dedicated to this to save all souls. This is one of the greatest message, happiest message, glorious message (This is the greatest message, the happiest message, the most glorious message) God has given to the world. But still, it is dependent on me, on you for its efficacy.

Somebody, some people have to accept it, have to make sacrifice and give themselves, and I am begging you this night, my brothers and sisters, have pity on the fallen humanity, have pity on the Church battered from all sides but can never be overcome by the power of evil.

Have pity on the human race, your fellow brothers and sisters, who have been attacked by every type of evil.

Apply this solution now and see what God will do with you. You will be the happiest person if you say YES and mean this YES and stand by this YES to the end. You will suffer, yes, but at the end God will use you to save all. And you will be the happiest person to see that evil is vanquished, the devil is annihilated, sickness is removed to prepare for the world to come.

Now the glory of God shines, and then here on earth the Will of God is done, here on earth, as it is done in heaven. His kingdom will come. The only solution, the only solution God has revealed to Me is this: Unite to these Two Wounded and Bleeding Hearts. There is no other solution.

I tell you solemnly: This revelation of God's Love – it is the deepest, it is the highest of God's Love and an invitation to you also to make your commitment; if you made it already, to renew it for the sake of the Love of God, to unite ourselves to these Two Wounded and Bleeding Hearts and so draw all to this union by praying for them, by consecrating them.

And God has already decided to save all His creation not minding the obstacles, to pour the blood of His Love on the whole world not minding the obstacles. But He needs you, He needs me as Victim souls in the union with the Supreme Victim Soul Jesus Christ Himself and His Mother Mary.

May God bless you as you let this message sink into your heart, as you can receive this Love of God for which God made you. As you hear the voice of God speaking to you, it will enlighten you.

Let all of us sing it now: Hear I am Lord, it is I Lord, I have heard you calling in the night. I will go Lord, if You lead me. I will hold Your people in my heart.

This is the solution: Unite yourselves to these Two Wounded and Bleeding Hearts. Please, let us apply it with our whole heart, our whole mind, our whole soul.

As Our Lady taught those servants at Cana: "Do whatever He tells you." Jesus told them what to do: "Fill those jars with water." And they did it, they filled the jars to the brim. Let's fill the jars of our purity, of our prayer, of our propagation to the brim and see this world will be completely changed to be where the Love of God, the Will of God is done here on earth as it is in heaven.

I promise you, you will be the happiest person, no matter what you suffer, for the Lord has used you. Like Mary who sang the Magnificat: "My soul glorifies the Lord!" Allow God to use you!

May God bless you and through you bless all, now and forever and ever. Amen.
